

An aerial photograph of the medieval town of San Gimignano in Tuscany, Italy. The town is built on a hill and is famous for its towers, which are visible in the background. The foreground shows a large, open square with several parked cars and a few people walking. The buildings are made of light-colored stone and have red-tiled roofs. The sky is blue with some clouds.

fav.n.
U.07

DATA EMISSIONE	REDATTO	DESCRIZIONE
07/09/2020	Arch. Cristiana Antonini Ing. Michele Bonfigli	Prima emissione