

This aerial photograph shows the village of S. Maria del Rio, situated along a river. The river flows through the center of the village, with buildings and roads on either side. A red-shaded area in the upper right corner of the image indicates the specific location of the study area, which is a small, irregularly shaped plot of land near the riverbank.

04

POZZETTO DI ISPEZIONE